

Enjoying chemistry for the first time...

Before Remote CART, with my hearing loss, chemistry was just a big slur of scientific definitions and balancing equations.

After experiencing remote CART for the first time, it made the classroom experience so much more worthwhile; I was actually enjoying chemistry for the first time all year! I would like to thank 20/20 Captioning & Reporting for accommodating my hearing loss and making my learning experience much easier!

Michele, Student